

It is with great sadness that we learnt today of Queen Elizabeth II's passing.

The significant contributions she made to the Commonwealth and to our own country can never be underestimated.

As a mark of respect our flag is flying at half-mast.

The skiers this morning held a minute's silence in remembrance, while the rest of the school held a minute's silence at lunchtime.