

We want to hear from you!

Understanding schooling experiences of students & their families from diverse ethnic communities

The Education Review Office is doing a special project to learn about the experiences of learners and their whānau from diverse ethnic communities and how schools can best meet their needs.

We want to hear from students and families who identify their ethnicity as: African; Asian; Continental European; Latin-American; Middle-Eastern.

Surveys

If you want to have your say, please click on one of the following links:

- For whānau/families: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/LTIB-Whanau>
This survey is available in multiple languages: Arabic; Korean; Japanese; Hindi; Simplified Chinese; Spanish; Vietnamese; Tagalog; Khmer.
- Student survey: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/LTIB-Student>

Your voices and perspectives will support building a school system that works for all of New Zealand's ethnically diverse students and families.
